

DIPLODOCUS QUESTION SHEET

1. What was the Diplodocus known for?
2. What kind of teeth did the Diplodocus have?
3. How long could the Diplodocus's neck grow?
4. What was the Diplodocus's tail as long as?
5. How tall was the Diplodocus compared to animals we know today?
6. What did the Diplodocus mainly eat?
7. What did the Diplodocus use its long neck for?
8. Where did the Diplodocus live during the late Jurassic period?
9. What caused the extinction of the Diplodocus?
10. What did the Diplodocus possibly use its long tail for?

Answers

- | | |
|--------|---------|
| 1..... | 6..... |
| 2..... | 7..... |
| 3..... | 8..... |
| 4..... | 9..... |
| 5..... | 10..... |

DIPLODOCUS

ANSWER SHEET

1. The Diplodocus was known for its extremely long neck and tail.
2. The Diplodocus had flat, spoon-shaped teeth.
3. The Diplodocus's neck could grow as long as 30 feet.
4. The Diplodocus's tail was as long as a fire truck (about 40 feet).
5. The Diplodocus was about 15 feet tall, similar to a giraffe.
6. The Diplodocus was a herbivore and ate plants like ferns and horsetails.
7. The Diplodocus used its long neck to reach both high and low plants for food.
8. The Diplodocus lived in North America, which was covered in forests and plains.
9. The Diplodocus went extinct due to drastic climate changes caused by a meteor impact.
10. The Diplodocus might have used its long tail as a whip to scare away predators.

