

IGUANODON QUESTION SHEET

1. When did the Iguanodon live?
2. What did the Iguanodon eat?
3. What was the Iguanodon's unique feature?
4. Where were Iguanodon fossils found?
5. How big was the Iguanodon?
6. What did the Iguanodon use its thumb spike for?
7. How did the Iguanodon move?
8. What kind of environment did the Iguanodon live in?
9. What event led to the extinction of the Iguanodon?
10. Who first discovered the Iguanodon?

Answers

- | | |
|--------|---------|
| 1..... | 6..... |
| 2..... | 7..... |
| 3..... | 8..... |
| 4..... | 9..... |
| 5..... | 10..... |

IGUANODON

ANSWER SHEET

1. The Iguanodon lived about 125 million years ago during the Early Cretaceous period.
2. The Iguanodon was a herbivore, eating plants like ferns and cycads.
3. The Iguanodon had a thumb spike, which was likely used for defense or to grab food.
4. Iguanodon fossils have been found in Europe, including places like England and Germany.
5. The Iguanodon was about 30 feet long and 10 feet tall when walking on all fours.
6. The Iguanodon used its thumb spike for defense and possibly to help grab food.
7. The Iguanodon was capable of moving both on two legs and four legs.
8. The Iguanodon lived in a warm and humid environment with abundant vegetation.
9. The Iguanodon went extinct around 66 million years ago due to a massive asteroid impact, which caused drastic climate changes.
10. The Iguanodon was first discovered by Richard Owen in the early 19th century.

